All these organisations are subject to the same requirements and basic principles as set out in this Privacy Statement.

Is providing personal data to Cor Voet B.V. a requirement?

When we ask for personal data, Cor Voet B.V. applies the basic principle that no more personal data are requested than is necessary for the purposes described above. The provision of personal data is a necessary condition in order to enter into an agreement with Cor Voet B.V. If you do not wish to provide personal data, you cannot use our services.

Does Cor Voet B.V. pass on data to other countries?

Your personal data can be processed within the countries of the European Economic Area (EEA). Your personal data are not processed outside the EEA.

Does Cor Voet B.V. use automated decision-making processes and profiling?

No, Does Cor Voet B.V. does not use automated decision-making processes and profiling.

How long are my personal data stored for?

Cor Voet B.V. does not store your personal data for longer than is necessary under the applicable laws and regulations. Details of orders are stored for up to two years. Other personal data, including financial data, are stored for a maximum of 7 years after the end of the agreement.

Why does Cor Voet B.V. secure your personal data?

Cor Voet B.V. has taken appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data against loss or any form of unlawful processing. Various measures have been taken within that framework, including the encryption of data, encrypted communication and handling data as confidential information. The persons with access to your data on behalf of Cor Voet B.V. are bound by a duty of confidentiality.

Cor Voet B.V. requires the same technical and organisational measures from the organisations that process data on its instruction and has laid this down in processor's agreements.

What are your rights with regard to the personal data processed by Cor Voet B.V.?

You have various rights under the relevant laws. We will explain briefly explain these below.

Right of inspection

You have the right to inspect the personal data processed by Cor Voet B.V.

Right of correction and removal

You have the right to have your data changed or even deleted if the data is not (or no longer) correct, or if the processing thereof is not (or no longer) justified.

Right of objection

The right of objection means that you, on account of your specific situation, can object to certain processing operations of personal data.

Right of limitation

Under certain circumstances, you also have the right to limit the processing of your data. In brief, this means that Cor Voet B.V. temporarily 'freezes' the processing of your data. You can invoke this right in four situations:

- Pending the assessment of a correction request;
- If data should, in fact, be erased, but you do not wish the data to be removed;
- If Cor Voet B.V. no longer needs the data, whereas you do for the preparation of a lawsuit;
- Pending the assessment of a notice of objection;

Right of data portability

You have the right to receive (back) the information provided by you to Cor Voet B.V. in a common file format. This right only applies to personal data that we process on the basis of your consent or an agreement concluded with you. In addition, the right only applies to data that we already process in a digital format (i.e. not to 'paper' processing operations). You are free to subsequently pass that information on to another organisation.

If there is a link between our systems and those of the organisation which you want the data to be transmitted to, we may be able to organise that transfer on your behalf directly. Ask about the possibilities.

Revocation of consent

If we process your data on the basis of your consent, you at all times have the right to revoke any consent given. This will prompt us to immediately cease processing.

The revocation of consent does not have retroactive effect; all processing operations completed in the past, therefore, remain legitimate.

Exercising your rights

In principle, exercising your rights is free of charge, except in the event of abuse. You can exercise your rights by contacting us via the contact details at the bottom of this Privacy Statement.

Terms

We endeavour to answer your questions/requests within one month. Should the answer to your question/request take longer, we will inform you of this within one month. It is possible that, due to the complexity and/or the number of requests, the response period can take up to three months.

Identification

Cor Voet B.V. can ask for further proof of your identity in connection with any question/request. Cor Voet B.V. does this to prevent personal data from being provided to the wrong party or to prevent changes being made to the personal data unjustly.

Individual consideration with every request

We need to remind you that the rights described above are not absolute. There may be circumstances that make it impossible for Cor Voet B.V. to comply with a request, for example, if your data have been or are to be processed on the basis of a legal obligation.

Cor Voet B.V. always assesses every request on its own merits. Should Cor Voet B.V. not be able to comply with a particular request, this will, of course, be communicated to you, supported with reasons. Subsequently, you can apply to the courts, if you so wish.

The right of objection against the use of data for (direct) marketing purposes is absolute. Requests in which you want to opt out from commercial communications are therefore honoured, in any event.

Does Cor Voet B.V. employ a Data Protection Officer?

Cor Voet B.V. has not appointed a Data Protection Officer. We have, however, appointed a Privacy Officer, who acts as the contact person for matters relating to the processing of personal data.

Do you have a complaint about the processing of personal data by Cor Voet B.V.?

If you have a complaint about the processing of personal data by Cor Voet B.V., we would appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible. We will do our utmost to resolve this complaint. If you do not agree with us, you can submit a complaint to the supervisory authority. The Dutch Data Protection Authority supervises compliance with the privacy legislation. You can find the contact details of the Dutch Data Protection Authority via de website www.autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl.
